(1) Welcomes the decision of the United Nations General Assembly to commemorate the Fiftieth Anniversary in an appropriate manner in furtherance of the theme "We he peoples of the United Nations . . unite for a better world";

(2) Reiterates its belief that as the United Nations, the embodiment of multilateralism is uniquely placed to promote a more just, equitable, prosperous and secure world order, it should be strengthened to reflect current political and economic realities and contribute to enhancing the common welfare on the basis of international cooperation, mutual respect and global partnership.

(3) Reaffirms our abiding commitment to the United Nations, and reiterates our determination to build upon the achievements of the United Nations Organisation and utilise its potential in order to advance our shared aspirations of peace, security and prosperity.

(4) Hopes that the restructuring and strengthening of the UN including the Security Council will reflect current realities and enable it to realise the principles and purposes enshrined in its Charter, for the promotion of peace and progress of all humankind.

I hope the House will adopt this Resolution.

The Resolution was adopted.
